

2017 FUEL ECONOMY GUIDE

The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) and U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) publish the Fuel Economy Guide annually and seek your help in educating the public about fuel economy and the benefits of using more fuel-efficient vehicles. Please display the Guide in a prominent place for patrons seeking information about purchasing new vehicles.

- * Copies of the Guide can be downloaded at www.fueleconomy.gov or ordered via the Web at <http://www.fueleconomy.gov/feg/contacts.shtml> or by using the postcard below.
- * Allow 10 days for delivery when ordering via the website. Allow 3-4 weeks when using the postcard.

Note to Automobile Dealers

According to federal law (40 CFR 600.405-08 and 600.407-08), the Fuel Economy Guide must be prominently displayed where new automobiles are offered for sale and be made available to the public at no charge.

The Fuel Economy Guide website,

www.fueleconomy.gov, features

- * printable, electronic version of the 2017 Guide
- * updated fuel economy and fuel cost data for new and used vehicles dating back to 1984
- * side-by-side comparison of vehicles
- * emissions information
- * safety ratings
- * links to car-buying websites

By working together, we can help consumers save money, reduce our nation's dependence on imported oil, and promote cleaner air in our communities. Please call 1-800-254-6735 if you have any questions.
